

May 2018 - a month of tradition

Please update your alumni contact information on the registration page of the Alumni tab of the school website.

If you are a parent of an alumnus and want to receive these emails, please send a message to alumni@olwschool.org with contact information and we can keep you on the email distribution list also.

May Crowning is May 24

This beautiful tradition carries on at OLW. It is the longest tradition in the school and probably the most important, since we are a school named after Mary, our Mother. We invite you to come.

It will be held on May 24, the Feast of Our Lady of the Wayside, at 2pm in the Church. If you live in the area and have time, please consider coming. The 2nd graders will process in wearing their 1st Communion outfits. Then the 8th graders will walk in; the May Crowning court this year includes the children of three alumni - Reagan Cherwin, daughter of Jay Cherwin, 1990; Caroline Holum, daughter of Robin Ramicone Holum, 1978; and Andrew Shevlin, son of Mike Shevlin, 1982.

Spring Fling - the last Cotillion dance of the school year

Spring Fling occurred last month - always a lovely night. Eighth graders and their parents both participated in the last Cotillion dance. The students waltzed and cha-cha'd, showing the dances they learned throughout the school year. Then the parents were taught a dance as well.

Happening at School Recently...

Forty-two middle school students recently performed Fiddler on the Roof. This was the third middle school performance and it is becoming a great tradition.

Washington DC Trip

Many of our 8th graders took the traditional trip to Washington DC just this week. They spent time a lot of time outside during a rainy and cloudy week: Arlington Cemetery, the Lincoln, WWII, Korean, and Vietnam Memorials. Other stops of interest included the International Spy Museum, Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, an appointment on Capitol Hill, the Library of Congress, Holocaust Museum, The Newseum, and Mt. Vernon.

We posted a picture of the Class of 1978 on Facebook. Stephanie Austin added a picture from the Class of 1990 and Mike Becvar added a photo from Class of 1987.

Sad Passings

We were informed that:

Diane Schaedel Mahanna, class of 1961, passed away in July of 2013.

Samantha Kroll, class of 1996, passed away just this spring.

Please keep their souls and their families in your prayers.
